Declares Flavius B. Davison, Well Known Banker and Live Stock Grower.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 24.—"Judge Robinson will take Harrison county by storm." This was the enthusiastic comment Tuesday of Flavius B. Davison, banker, live stock grower and one of the most influential Republicans of that section of the state. Mr. Davison, who was in Charleston on personal business is an ardent supporter of the judge's candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

"The people of Harrison county know Judge Robinson—and knowing him they cannot help but love him. Even his enemies—if he has any—admire him. He was born and reared in the county adjoining ours and our people feel that he is one of them. They fully appreciate the sterling character, as well as the brilliant attainments of the man. They are proud of him and will vote for him almost to the man. In all walks of life you hear his praises sung."

"You may say this for me," the veteran stockman and financier concluded. "If there is any sentiment for Lilly in Harrison county it will have to be manufactured."

Mr. Davison is one of the most influential Republicans in the state. He is an active member of the West Virginia Live Stock Association and is familiar with the sentiment of the farmers and financiers of all sections. He said the sentiment for Robinson is state-wide and extends to all strata of society from the man who digs in the mine or tills the soil to the business man, the manufacturer and capitalist.

PLACE

Is Selected for Joe Jimmy, Who Didn't Know Where He Was Going.

A destination has been selected for the foreigner who was arrested a recent night at the local railroad station for importing whiskey unlawfully and who put up the alias of Joe Jimmy.

When taken into custody Joe said he didn't know where he was going but was on his way. In view of that circumstance, Magistrate C. L. Watkins, of Shinnston, sitting for Magistrate William E. Starcher, who is ill, late Wednesday decided that the county jail would be as good a place as any for Jimmy during the next sixty days, and perhaps longer in the event a fine of $100 and costs is not settled. A means of diversion has been provided for Joe in the privilege of working on the county roads at such times during that period as the weather will permit.

Joe ran into the meshes of the Prohibition law by neglecting to paste labels on the outside of a satchel in which he was lugging something like twenty-six pints of whiskey. This liquor has been confiscated by the county.

Bryan broke with the president and left the cabinet over the question of warning Americans of belligerent ships. Among those who now are supporting the agitation to put Mr. Bryan's proposal into legislative action are some senators and representatives who have been numbered among Mr. Bryan's admirers, but it is true that some of them also are classed as supporters of the president.

Under these circumstances administration supporters do not see how a breach can be immediately imminent. While the new submarine campaign goes into effect on March 1, there are indications from German quarters that the attitude of the United States is fully understood and that the consequences of destruction of more American lives is fully realized.

In that connection the internal situation in Germany comes in for consideration. Private advices from Germany tell how the civilian element at court headed by the chancellor, which had contended for preserving friendly relations with the United States, has been overshadowed by a newly political force headed by General von Falkenhayn, chief of staff of the new army, who is said to have gathered the elements which were led by Grand Ad-
